Jeff Newman was in Flagstaff from Holbrook Monday.

James Treagle, the Prescott cattle buyer, was in Flagstaff this week receiving and buying cattle.

Harry Henderson, the sheepman, of Belemont, was in Flagstaff Wednesday.

Manager F. A. Reid of the Reid-Cashin Cattle Company, was here Wednesday from Seligman.

"That our boys should not have died in vain"—buy bonds to the very limit.

It is hardly a fair shake for cow owners to turn them out at night at the expense of the rest of the public.

Mr. G. B. Kirkpatrick, Democratic candidate for supervisor, was in Flagstaff from Williams the first of the week.

Mrs. W. B. Raudebaugh is teaching school at Hopewell, near Clark-dale. The school was opened about a week ago.

Mr. A. H. Piatt, formerly editor of the Leader, has resigned and left Sunday morning for his home in Los Angeles.

F. L. Dickinson shipped 200 head of fat range cattle to Los Angeles this week. They were in fine shape and brought a good price.

S. S. Acker was in Williams Saturday to relieve Mrs. Acker, who had previously driven there by auto and was having trouble with the car.

Low Landers was in Flagstaff from his cattle ranch south this week. Low is not complaining of the high prices of beef.

Percy Morse, a former Flagstaff boy, who now makes his home in Holbrook, was in Flagstaff Tuesday visiting his many old friends.

John Loy, the man who made Munds Park famous for its agricultural productiveness, was in Flagstaff the first of the week from his ranch.

Ranchers and people from the country invited to stop and rest at the Second Hand Store, McMillan Bldg., Flagstaff. J. H. Harper & Co.

Prof. Walker, a member of the Normal faculty, has been seriously ill for the past two weeks with an attack of influenza. He was improving for a few days.

A. J. Sullivan, the Dresswell man, not to be outdone by those among us enjoying influenza, is all swelled up on one side with an ulcerated tooth.

Dr. M. L. Davis of Los Angeles arrived in Flagstaff Sunday and is the guest of R. J. Kidd, his father-in-law.
He expects to remain a few weeks.

General Richardson, who has been visiting his son, Prof. O. H. Richardson, for a few months this summer, left Monday for Bakersfield, Calif., to spend the winter with his daughter.

Ambrosio Armijo of Holbrook was in Flagstaff Monday. He is a sheepman and has a full grown complaint against the "ingrowing" feed of his range, caused by dry weather.

F. W. Smith, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias for the state of Arizona, went to Williams Saturday on an official visit, and from there will officially visit the Pythian lodges at Phoenix and Miami before returning to Flagstaff.

F. A. Wenge, deputy United States marshal of Phoenix, was in Flagstaff Tuesday on business.

NO RED TAPE TO LIBERTY BONDS

A $100 Liberty Bond is no less than a $100 bill. It is made by the United States Government on the same kind of silk-paper used in making a $100 bill. It bears the same guarantee written on a $100 bill except it guarantees interest and names a definite date on which the face value of it plus accrued interest will be paid on demand.

The man, woman, or child who buys one Liberty Bond will buy more. A holder of a Liberty Bond realizes it is money and becomes anxious to get more.

Dr. E. S. Miller answered an S. O.
S. call from Holbrook Tuesday and is helping out those suffering with the influenza in that town. The only doctor in that place is sick in bed with the disease.

Hon. T. H. Cureton, the Republican candidate for state senator, was in Flagstaff from Williams Saturday interviewing the people on his chances of election, and feels confident from what he hears that they are good.

Mrs. Katherine McMillan, mother of Mrs. George Fleming, who has been visiting her daughter here the past two weeks, returned to her home in Flagstaff this week. George Fleming, Jr., accompanied Mrs. McMillan on the return trip.—Kingman Miner.

Noted Murderer Catches

Frank L. Dickinson was in Flagstaff the first of the week from his headquarters ranch at Apache Maid. Frank has been gaining an enviable reputation lately for his smooth and easy way of picking up murderers down his way. It would seem that criminals who break out over Jerome-way would hereafter steer clear of his neck of the woods. He recently picked up a couple murderers wanted in Jerome for the killing of Watchman Harrison and piloted them to jail.

George Morgan for Constable

George Morgan, who came to this country when all the trees were small, was in Flagstaff from Grand Canyon the latter part of last week. It is announced that George will be the Republican candidate for constable at the Canyon this fall. He has been in charge of the road on the rim for a long time and well acquainted with every one at the Canyon as well as most of the tourists who stop to view the big ditch.

Pioneer Visits Flagstaff

Mr. J. Todd McClammy, who some thirty or more years ago, came to Flagstaff as a cowpuncher with the famous "Hashknife" outfit of cattle, was in Flagstaff Saturday. He was acquainted with J. W. Francis, and through him looked up other old-time friends of the range and was very much interested in the poet outlaw, McNeil, with whom he was intimately acquainted. Since leaving this section of the country Mr. McClammy has lived in Montana and Canada, but mainly in old Mexico, where he spent the past twenty years mining.

Nurse Enrolled for Service

Miss Jennie Gavin, the well-known nurse and daughter of Mrs. M. A.
Gavin of this city, who has been on duty at the St. Joseph's Sanitarium at Albuquerque, has received notice by wire from Washington Red Cross officials advising her that she had been enrolled in the Red Cross Nursing Service and requested to wire the earliest date she would be available for cantonment service. Miss Gavin will be a valuable assistant in the good work.

Death of a Baby

The two-year-old baby of A. Bes-enille died Wednesday night from an attack of influenza. Eight of the Besenille family were attacked with the disease at the same time. The remains were taken to the Whipple Undertaking parlors and the funeral services were held yesterday, conducted by Father Vabre.

But They Belong to Flag

DEMOCRATS MAKE BETS AGAINST COLTER

absolute bar to Colter's taking his seat and there is no question that in the event he is disqualified by the courts, Hunt would hold over. It is true that Wiley Jones and a few lawyers who are ambitious to land jobs have given it as their opinion that a way can be found to get around the plain provision of the constitution, but he real-talent of the state pronounces the provision as an absolute barrier to Colter's filling the governor's chair.

Great Demand for Book

There has been a great demand for the booklet issued by the Republican State Committee entitled "The People Overruled." This pamphlet gives the history of the contest case and contains specimen ballots, reproductions of exhibits in the case, showing the precise way in which Tom Campbell was counted out. Colter's supporters in Phoenix threatened to have the authors of the book arrested for contempt of court but were apparently advised that the pamphlet does not constitute contempt, as the case which is discussed is closed. At any rate the contempt would not be committed in the presence of the court and a jury trial could be demanded. The pamphlet quotes Judge Franklin and Judge Stanford and is a fair relation of the questions involved in the contest.

Jesse Boyce Surprised

Jesse Boyce, state auditor, who won a reputation at San Diego, was a very much surprised man, when the Republicans nominated a candidate against him. Charles W. Fairfield of Winslow, who will oppose Boyce, is one of the best known business men of northern Arizona. He is an accountant by profession and was for a time assistant auditor of the state of New Mexico. He has resided in Arizona for some time.

J. G. Compton a Winner

One of the Republican nominees who has a splendid chance of election is J. Grant Compton of Tucson, who has been placed on the ticket as nominee for corporation commissioner.
He will oppose David Johnson, present state treasurer, who was Jesse Boyce's partner in the San Diego affair. Mr.
Compton is a conductor on the Southern Pacific and is one of the high officers of the Order of Railway Conductors. He is a member of the District Exemption Board at Tucson and is widely known throughout the southern portion of the state. Mr. Compton is very popular in railroad circles and stands high in Tucson, his home city. He is an energetic fellow and will make a vigorous campaign.

Speaking for Liberty Loan

In accordance with his promise, Tom Campbell was prompt to adjourn politics when the Liberty Loan campaign opened. There has been great demand for him as a Liberty Loan speaker and he is trying to arrange his schedule to accommodate all the cities and towns asking for his services.

Officers' Wives Leave

Mrs. E. M. Robison, wife of Captain Robison, and Mrs. John Mathews, wife of Lieut. John Mathews, who have been making their home here since their husbands left for France, left the first of the week for the east. Mrs.
Robinson goes to her old home in Milwaukee and Mrs. Mathews to Concordia, Kans., to remain with her mother until after the war. It is hoped that they will both return to Flagstaff with their husbands after the war and make their homes here.

TREES.

I think that I shall never see A poem lovely as a tree,

A tree whose hungry mouth is pressed Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in summer wear A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain, Who intimately lives with rain.
Poems are made by fools like me, But only God can make a tree.

—Joyce Kilmer.

(The author of this was associate editor of the Literary Digest and a brilliant writer, recently killed in action at front.)
